Who we are

SANT KARL LÉVÊQUE (SKL) — WHO WE ARE

SANT KARL LÉVÊQUE (SKL) is one of Haiti's longest-standing human rights organizations, dedicated to the defense and promotion of human rights and committed to advancing human dignity, democracy, social justice, and the rule of law.

OUR LEGACY

The organization is named after Reverend Father Karl Lévêque (1937–1986), a Jesuit priest and intellectual who was deeply committed to the defense of fundamental rights and the struggle against dictatorship.

His name reflects SKL's commitment to carrying forward his legacy of justice, democracy, and social engagement.

	OUR POSITIONING As a long-standing actor within Haitian civil society, SKL works closely with local populations and communities through an approach that is independent, impartial, participatory, and firmly grounded in local realities. OUR CONTRIBUTION SKL has contributed to the development and strengthening of Haiti’s human rights movement, notably through its involvement in the establishment of: POHDH – Platform of Haitian Human Rights Organizations GARR – Support Group for Returnees and Refugees ECC – Together Against Corruption Building on this legacy, SKL continues its work to advance the protection of fundamental rights, access to justice, and the strengthening of the rule of law in Haiti.
Our mission	Sant Karl Lévéque (SKL) works to defend human rights and improve the living conditions of Haiti’s most vulnerable populations, particularly in rural areas and underserved communities. The organization seeks to strengthen civic awareness, promote equitable access to rights, and contribute to building a society founded on human dignity, social justice, and progress. SKL also places a strong emphasis on training, civic education, and the development of a new generation of leaders capable of carrying forward Karl Lévéque’s commitment and ideals and contributing to the sustainable transformation of Haitian society.
Our vision	To contribute to the emergence of a democratic, just, and sovereign Haitian society, founded on respect for human rights and the rule of law, where social justice, human dignity, and civic participation are guaranteed, and where the Haitian people fully exercise their right to self-determination.
